Re: DT 06-067, Freedom Ring d/b/a BayRing Communications
Complaint Against Verizon New Hampshire Re: Access Charges

To the Parties:

On January 10, 2007, Verizon New Hampshire (Verizon) filed a motion to compel discovery responses and an expedited motion to suspend schedule pending consideration of Verizon's discovery motion. On January 12, 2007, BayRing and AT&T jointly filed a motion to compel discovery responses. On January 12, 2007, a secretarial letter was issued setting forth the Commission's decision to approve proposed revisions to the procedural schedule filed by AT&T, One Communications and BayRing also on January 12, 2007. The revised procedural schedule was predicated on an anticipated decision by the Commission of the above-noted motions to compel.

At its public meeting on January 19, 2007, the Commission granted Verizon's motion to suspend, confirming the procedural schedule approved on January 12, 2007, and noting that a Commission decision on the motions to compel would be rendered by February 2, 2007.

Sincerely,
