Part 51.

 - e) In the event an interconnection agreement between FairPoint and ComTech already exists in the State of New Hampshire ("Original ICA"), this adoption shall be an amendment and restatement of the operating terms and conditions of the Original ICA, and shall replace in its entirety the terms of the original ICA. This adoption is not intended to be, nor shall it be construed to create a novation or an accord and satisfaction of with respect to the Original ICA. Any outstanding payment obligations of the parties that were incurred but not fully performed under the Original ICA shall constitute payment obligations of the parties under this adoption.
 - f) FairPoint's standard pricing schedule for interconnection agreements in the State of New Hampshire (as such schedule may be amended from time to time) which is attached as Exhibit A hereto, shall apply to ComTech's adoption of the Terms. The inclusion of such rates in no way obligates FairPoint to provide the subject services and in no way waives FairPoint's rights, and the use of different wording or phrasing in the pricing schedule does not alter the obligations and rights set forth in the Terms.
 - g) ComTech's adoption of the Terms shall become effective on November 7, 2008 unless this letter is not executed and returned to FairPoint. FairPoint shall file this adoption letter with the Commission promptly upon receipt of an original of this letter countersigned by ComTech. The term and termination provisions of the Terms shall govern ComTech's adoption of the Terms.
2. As the Terms are being adopted by ComTech pursuant to § 252(i) of the Act, FairPoint does not provide the Terms to you as either a voluntary or negotiated agreement. The filing and performance by FairPoint of the Terms does not in any way constitute a waiver by FairPoint of any position as to the Terms or a portion thereof, nor does it constitute a waiver of by FairPoint of any rights or remedies it may have to seek review of the Terms, or to seek to review any provisions included in the Terms as a result of ComTech's adoption of the Terms.

3. Nothing herein shall be construed as or is intended to be a concession or admission by FairPoint that any provision in the Terms complies with the rights and duties imposed by the Act, the decisions of the FCC and the Commission, the decisions of the courts, or other law, and FairPoint expressly reserves its full right to assert and pursue claims arising from or related to the Terms.
4. FairPoint reserves the right to deny ComTech's application of the Terms, in whole or in part, at any time:
 - a) when the costs of providing the Terms to ComTech are greater than the costs of providing them to Choice One;
 - b) if the provisions of the Terms to ComTech is not technically feasible; and/or
 - c) to the extent that FairPoint otherwise is not required to make the Terms available to ComTech under the law.
5. For avoidance of any doubt, please note that adoption of the terms will not result in reciprocal compensation payments for internet traffic. Any compensation to be paid for internet traffic will be handled pursuant to the FCC in the Order on Remand and Report and Order adopted April 18, 2001 ("FCC Internet Order"), which held that Internet Traffic constitutes information access outside the scope of the reciprocal compensation obligations set forth in § 251(b)(5) of the Act.¹
6. Should ComTech try to apply the Terms in a manner that conflicts with Paragraphs 2 through 5 above, FairPoint reserves the right to seek appropriate legal and/or equitable relief.

In the event that a voluntary or involuntary petition has been or is in the future filed against ComTech under bankruptcy or insolvency laws, or any law relating to the relief of debtors, readjustment of indebtedness, debtor reorganization or composition or extension of debt (any such proceeding an "insolvency proceeding"), then: (A) all rights of FairPoint under such laws including without limitation, all rights of FairPoint under 11 U.S.C. §366, shall be preserved, and ComTech's adoption of the Terms shall in no way impair such rights of FairPoint; and (B) all rights of ComTech resulting from ComTech's adoption of the Terms shall be subject to and modified by any Stipulations and Orders entered in the Insolvency Proceeding, including, without limitation, any Stipulation or Order providing adequate assurance of payment to FairPoint pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 366.
