1.	Must hard copies of responses be postmarked no later than April 20 or April 26, 2019?	Hard copies of responses must be postmarked no later than April 26, 2019.
2.	May a subcontractor on a prime contractor team provide energy efficiency program support for one of the New Hampshire regulated utilities?	There is insufficient information to answer this question. This is the type of conflict that must be disclosed in complete detail in a response. The commission- takes conflicts of interest and the appearance of bias seriously. Proposers can expect that it would disqualify a prime contractor to have a subcontractor that is both helping the prime contractor provide advice to the EESE Board regarding the EERS and simultaneously providing energy efficiency program support to one of the New Hampshire regulated utilities.
3.	May a subcontract on a prime contract team be a member of the EERS committee.	There is insufficient information to answer this question.
