CRS 16-219, Northern New England Telephone Operations, LLC Petition for Licenses to Maintain Utility Cables Over and Across

Public Lands and Waters of the State of New Hampshire

TO:

Commissioners

Debra Howland, Executive Director

CC: David K. Wiesner, Staff Attorney

Executive Summary: Staff recommends that the Commission grant licenses through an order nisi for the 62 crossings described in Attachment B of the petition.

Background

On February 2, 2016, Northern New England Telephone Operations, LLC (FairPoint) submitted a petition seeking licenses under New Hampshire RSA 371:17 for 62 existing crossings of public waters and/or state-owned lands.

These crossings were constructed at undetermined times and were not previously licensed. FairPoint developed an inventory listing of such crossings as part of its effort to comply with, and take advantage of, a recent law allowing telecommunications carriers to obtain retrospective licenses for existing crossings between existing poles (New Hampshire RSA 371:17-b). That statute directs the Commission to issue licenses for such crossings without investigation.

The crossings submitted in this docket do not appear to qualify for retrospective licensing under RSA 371:17-b, since they are not constructed between two poles but rather involve manhole and pedestal terminations. FairPoint separately filed a notification in docket CRS 15-243 regarding 212 pole-to-pole crossings under RSA 371:17-b.

The Commission has previously addressed newly-reported or discovered unlicensed telecommunications crossings by directing the carrier to obtain a crossings license under RSA 371:17, as in Order No. 25,139 issued on August 17, 2010 and Order No. 25,175 issued on November 30, 2010. Staff recommended to FairPoint that the company petition to have these 62 crossings licensed under that statute.

RSA 371:17 does not specify the level of investigation and review required before the Commission issues a license. In previous petitions seeking licenses before construction occurs, Staff has undertaken a relatively detailed and intensive investigation focused on safety and compliance. For example, Staff has independently calculated cable sag based on crossing and pole dimensions and ice loading projections.

Although the 62 crossings that are the subject of this docket do not appear to qualify for licensing under RSA 371:17-b, Staff believes that both RSA 371:17-a and 371:17-b—each enacted in 2013—provide useful guidance regarding the appropriate standard of review and level of investigation to be performed for retrospectively reported telecommunications cable crossings. Both statutes call for licensing "by notification" of such crossings without Commission investigation. In this docket, where the crossings have been in place for years without complaint or incident, Staff considers the same standard of review and level of investigation to be generally appropriate.

Staff has confirmed that the coordinates provided for each of these crossings appear to be located in New Hampshire. FairPoint has provided a notarized affidavit attesting that these crossings are "necessary to meet the reasonable requirements of service to the public," that these crossings are believed to have been completed in compliance with relevant safety codes, and that they are being maintained in accordance with the National Electrical Safety Code.

Staff recommends that the Commission grant a license for these 62 crossings through issuance of an order nisi.
