The content of these negotiations, including any documents prepared during such negotiations for the purpose of reaching a settlement, shall be privileged and all offers of settlement shall be without prejudice to the position of any party presenting such offer.

3.7 This Settlement Agreement may be executed by facsimile and in multiple counterparts, each of which shall be deemed to be an original, and all of which, taken together, shall constitute one agreement binding on all Settling Parties.

SECTION 4. CONCLUSION

4.1 The Settling Parties affirm that the proposed Settlement Agreement is just, reasonable, in the public interest, and should be approved by the Commission.
