Re: DW 18-022: Pennichuck Water Works, Inc.
2018 Petition for Qualified Capital Project Adjustment Charge
Staff Recommendation of Procedural Schedule

Dear Ms. Howland,

On February 16, 2018, Pennichuck Water Works, Inc. ("PWW") filed its Qualified Capital Project Adjustment Charge ("QCPAC") petition for 2018. PWW's QCPAC mechanism was approved in Commission Order No. 26,070 (November 7, 2017) in DW 16-806 to provide rate recovery for the Company between general rate proceedings. On February 22, 2018, the Office of the Consumer Advocate filed a letter of participation in this proceeding.

The purpose of PWW's petition is three-fold: 1) to obtain approval for a QCPAC surcharge to be implemented during 2018 based on capital projects completed and placed in service during 2017<sup>1</sup>; 2) to obtain approval for the projects included in the Company's proposed 2018 capital budget<sup>2</sup>; and 3) to provide, for informational purposes only, the Company's forecasted capital projects and associated budgets for the years 2019 and 2020.<sup>3</sup>

Given that PWW's current QCPAC mechanism essentially replaces the Company's Water Infrastructure and Conservation Adjustment ("WICA") pilot program, Staff is recommending a procedural schedule in this case which is similar in nature to that of PWW's previous WICA filings, as follows:

<sup>1</sup> In its original petition, PWW projected a surcharge to customers of 1.62% based on an estimated interest rate of 5.0% on the debt service associated with its 2017 used and useful projects. This equates to an approximate $0.87 increase in the monthly bills of average single family residential ratepayers. On March 28, 2018, PWW submitted an update to its 2018 QCPAC petition indicating that the actual interest rate associated with the proposed debt service for its 2017 projects is approximately 4.899%. As a result, PWW is now projecting a 1.60% QCPAC surcharge, which amounts to an $0.86 monthly increase for average single family rate payers.

<sup>3</sup> PWW's projected capital budgets for 2019 is $12,002,800 and for 2020 is $9,953,400.
