

Let their investors pay the $7 million for this botched joke, not rate-payers. Since when does a company have the right to conceive of a foolish idea, spend millions on pursuing it, and then slap their foreheads and say, "Oh, shucks! We goofed! Now you can pay for our mistake."

Let the horse's asses who invest in Liberty pay for this.

Thank you,

Former Representative Chris Balch
Wilton

"Time spent in the company of trees is never wasted time." - Katrina Mayer

Balch Boats <https://www.facebook.com/chrisbalchboats>
ResistSupply101 www.etsy.com/shop/ResistSupply101