

(e) Lien. If the Company receives a favorable judgment from the small claims court, and bills remain unpaid, the Company will issue a letter indicating that an administrative fee of $100.00 has been added to the account in order for the Company to place a lien on the property. In addition, filing fees and other fees will be added to the account.

(f) Attorney Fees. If a customer causes the Company to consult/engage the services of an attorney due to the nonpayment of any bill, the Company will issue a letter indicating that an additional administrative fee of $200.00 and/or attorney fees have been added to the account in order for the Company to work with an attorney to resolve the unpaid balance. In accordance with PUC 1203.08, financial hardship customers are not subject to late charges and penalties.

(g) Change of Ownership. Until the Company is notified of a change in ownership of premises served, the Company will hold the customer of record responsible for payment of service.
