Re: Notification of Formation of Community Power Aggregation Committee

Dear Chairman Goldner,

This letter is to provide notice to the Public Utilities Commission ("Commission") pursuant to Puc 2203.01 that the Select Board for the Town of North Hampton voted on June 26, 2023 to form an electric aggregation committee pursuant to RSA 53-E:6, I ("Committee").

Pursuant to the notification requirements of Puc 2203.01, the following individuals will be key contacts in support of North Hampton's Plan:

1) Primary Energy Aggregation Committee Contact:

James Sununu, Committee Chair
Town of North Hampton
237A Atlantic Avenue
North Hampton, NH 03862
jsununu@northhampton-nh.gov
(603) 964-8087

2) Municipal Liaison for the Committee:

Michael Tully, Town Administrator
Town of North Hampton
237A Atlantic Avenue
North Hampton, NH 03862
mtully@northhampton-nh.gov
(603) 964-8087

3) Designee authorized to request information from Eversource and Unitil:

Stuart Ormsbee
Colonial Power Group
5 Mount Royal Ave, Suite 5-350
Marlborough, MA 01752
sormsbee@colonialpowergroup.com
(508) 769-0880

North Hampton has not yet developed a dedicated website for its program. The town will notify the Commission of the new program URL once created.

As soon as permitted pursuant to Puc 2203.01(c) and Puc 2203.02, the Town anticipates sending requests to Eversource and Unitil for aggregated usage information for all electric customers located in North Hampton.

Please let me know if you have any questions or concerns.

Regards,

Michael Tully
Town Administrator
