Proposed Change to EE portion of the System Benefits Charge

Chairman Goldner:

On December 16, 2024 the Commission issued a procedural order in this docket, noting that “[t]he Commission expects to issue an order, on a nisi basis, addressing the Eversource petition regarding the Energy Efficiency rate component of the System Benefits Charge (SBC) in this instant DE 24-115 docket in the near future, for effect on January 1, 2025.” Public Service Company of New Hampshire d/b/a Eversource Energy (“Eversource” or the “Company”) hereby submits the following materials to support a Commission order nisi to approve the Company’s proposed 2025 energy efficiency (“EE”) portion of the SBC rate.

On October 16, 2024, the Department of Energy calculated the CPI-W factor for rates effective January 1, 2025 to be 4.978%, and confirmed the same with Eversource. Eversource subsequently calculated its EE portion of the SBC to be $0.00606. The Company has attached the supporting schedule of calculations and both redlined and clean versions of the following tariff page:
