Re: DE 07-064 Energy Efficiency Rate Mechanisms
Expert Presentations

To the Parties:

The Commission has adopted the recommendation of the parties and staff in the above-referenced proceeding that the Commission entertain a series of expert presentations about the potential of various regulatory approaches to promote energy efficiency. These presentations will also consider the effects of these various approaches on the state's electric utilities and their customers.

Please be advised that, after considering the parties' recommendations for suitable experts who would be available on the agreed-upon date of November 7, 2007, the Commission has arranged for presentations from Jeffrey D. Makhholm, PhD of NERA Economic Consulting, David Dismukes, PhD of the LSU Center for Energy Studies, and Richard Sedano or Frederick Weston of the Regulatory Assistance Project. The presentations will take place at the Commission and will begin at 10:00 a.m. on November 7.

Sincerely,
