2010 CORE New Hampshire Energy Efficiency Programs

THE JORDAN INSTITUTE
PETITION TO INTERVENE

NOW COMES The Jordan Institute (TJI), a non profit 501 c3, and respectfully requests leave to intervene as a party in the above-referenced proceeding, pursuant to Rule PUC 203.02 and RSA 541-A:32,I(b). In support of this petition, TJI states the following:

1. The principle focus of the TJI mission is to reduce the use of electricity and fossil fuels in buildings to help alleviate the effects of climate change.
2. TJI has a long-standing interest in the myriad of issues raised in this docket, among them electric utility rate design, and the use of ratepayer-funded energy efficiency programs to reduce energy costs and consumption. TJI's Executive Director, D. Dickinson Henry, Jr., was an active participant in DR 96-150, the docket establishing a statewide electric utility restructuring plan. Mr. Henry was a member of the Energy Efficiency Working Group established by the Commission in that docket. TJI, in its role as the LEED for Homes certifying agent for the state of New Hampshire, is extensively involved in the design and implementation of energy conservation and efficiency measures in both new and renovated structures throughout the State of New Hampshire. TJI's also works extensively with Municipalities and School Boards to reduce the use of electricity in schools and municipal buildings.
3. TJI is currently involved in the design and implementation of various financial tools to further facilitate the implementation of electric energy and fossil fuel conservation and efficiency measures in new and existing structures. If successful these efforts could have a significant impact on the volume of electricity and fossil fuel utilized in the state.

4. TJI's expertise and interest in the matters that are the subject of this docket would benefit the Commission's investigation. TJI's intervention would be in the interest of justice and would not impair the orderly and prompt conduct of the proceedings.

WHEREFORE, TJI requests that the Commission grant this motion, allow TJI to intervene as a party in this proceeding, and grant such other relief as is just and proper.

Respectfully submitted,
