To Patnode Set 2 Data Requests
September 26, 2007

Patnode 2-25: Again in reference to the response to Staff 1-83; please state whether the "...current telecom market..." is the market for basic local exchange service, or the market for all the different telecommunications products?

Response:

Basic local exchange service as well as technologies that compete with local exchange service. See response to Patnode 2-24.
