

PurePath Energy, LLC

NHPUC JUL02'13 PM 2:06

To whom it may concern,

I am submitting the registration application to the NHPUC to provide electricity & natural gas aggregation services to New Hampshire commercial & residential customers. I have attached the registration information required and also a check in the amount of $250.00 for both, electricity and natural gas, initial aggregator registration.

PurePath Energy, LLC will not provide any aggregator services to residential or commercial customers prior to or until they have completed the notification process required by PUC 2003.

I have been a Construction Project Manager for (17) Years on projects ranging up to $35 Million.

I have been working in the energy sector, part time, now for (6) years. I was a partner in a brokerage firm in New England for 2 years and have since decided to start my own brokerage company, PurePath Energy, LLC.

Thank you very much for your consideration.

Regards,

Jarrod Billingsley
