DEBRA HOWLAND
EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR, NH PUC
21 SOUTH FRUIT STREET, SUITE 10
CONCORD, NH 03301-2429

---

Dear Debra Howland,

I am in compliance with everything from Puc 3003.05 Initial Registration of Natural Gas Aggregators.

Selected Power Inc. is a newly formed company. However, as the President, I have been in the energy industry for ten years. Most of my time was spent on the residential side running sales offices for some of the largest energy retailers in North America. I have a great deal of experience in helping commercial customers of all sizes with their energy needs. I've helped clients in MA, NY, DE, PA, NJ, RI, MD. I've taken pride in always doing what's been best for the customer. Also, up hearing to every guideline and regulation of every market, I've operated in.

I look forward to creating relationships with business owners in NH and providing them solutions to their energy concerns.

Sincerely,

Matthew Brackin

Puc 3003.05 Initial Registration of Natural Gas Aggregators.

(a) Any person or entity seeking to provide aggregation services to customers shall register with the commission prior to providing such services. No aggregator shall enroll customers, or arrange to sell to or contract with customers, or solicit specific customers for such purposes, until such aggregator has completed all aspects of the registration process required by this chapter.

(b) An applicant seeking to register as an aggregator shall:

(1) Complete and submit an application for registration containing the information and signature as specified in Puc 3006.02; and

(2) Pay the application fee of $250 to the commission by submitting payment to the executive director.

(c) The commission shall reject an application for aggregator registration when information required to complete such application is not provided within 60 days of request for such information.

(d) Unless an application for aggregator registration is incomplete, does not meet the application requirements, or is subject to outstanding requests for additional information or clarification, within 60 days of receipt of a complete application:

(1) The application shall be approved in writing by the executive director, unless the approval requires the grant of a rule waiver under Puc 201.05;

(2) The application shall be denied in writing; or

(3) The application shall be deemed to have been approved.

(e) The commission shall deny an application for aggregator registration if it determines that the applicant or any of the applicant's principals or affiliates has:

(1) Been found in other state(s), after notice and opportunity to be heard, to have committed violations, such that the commission determines that it is not in the public good to allow registration;

(2) Within the 10 years immediately prior to registration, had any civil, criminal, or regulatory sanctions or penalties imposed against it, him, or her pursuant to any state or federal consumer protection law or regulation, such that the commission determines that it is not in the public good to allow registration; or

(3) Knowingly made a material false statement of fact in the application.

(f) In the event that the commission denies an application for registration, the applicant may, within 30 days, file a request for reconsideration or a hearing before the commission.

(g) The application fee shall be forfeited for aggregator applications which are rejected.

(h) A new application fee pursuant to (b)(2) above shall apply to submission of an aggregator application which has previously been rejected.

(i) An approved initial aggregator registration shall be valid for a period of 2 years.

(j) Each aggregator shall notify the commission of any changes to the information required to be submitted pursuant to this section and Puc 3006.02. The aggregator shall provide such notice in advance, when practicable, but no later than 10 business days following the effective date of the change, in all cases.
