Dear Ms. Howland:

Please note that the following information remains true and accurate, and Taurus Advisory Group LLC requests the the highlighted information below remains confidential, as was granted by the NH PUC upon submission of our initial application in February of 2019.

The applicant is more than willing to present a sworn affidavit affirming that the case did not include any customer as a plaintiff and did not focus on the actual practices of brokering/aggregating electricity supply contracts for customers. Please don't hesitate to contact me directly in request of clarification or additional documentation. Thanks so much for your time and efforts in the consideration of our submission.

Best,
